

Veranstungsdetails

Die Kunst engagiert und nachhaltig authentische indigene Tourismuserfahrungen zu kreieren

WINTA
WORLD INDIGENOUS TOURISM ALLIANCE

respointour.

Datum 6. März 2019	Zeit 14:00 - 15:00 Uhr	Ort Palais am Funkturm, ITB Kongress Awards
------------------------------	----------------------------------	---

Organized by ITB in cooperation with respointour + WINTA

Opening ceremony by Rapa Nui - Easter Island - 2 traditional dancers of the Ma'u Henua Indigenous Community

„The Art of Engaging and Sustaining Authentic Indigenous Experiences“

The Indigenous Tourism Seminar will offer a discussion around the definition of Indigenous Tourism and share visions of Indigenous Earth Wisdom : "Weaving a Future that Benefits All of Us".

Indigenous senior consultants from the USA, New Zealand, Easter Island and Sweden will discuss themes of good practices among successful indigenous experiences and explore how indigenous tourism can shape a conscious movement to make tourism a powerful tool to protect the planet and its inhabitants.

Followed by ITB LGBT Award Ceremony

Begrüßung:

Rika Jean-Francois, CSR-Beauftragte, ITB Berlin

Keynote Speaker:

Ben Sherman, Chairman, World Indigenous Tourism Alliance WINTA

Moderation:

Aurélie Debusschère, CEO, Native Immersion, Europe Agent WINTA

Podiumsgäste:

John Barrett, Kapiti Island, Aotearoa

Magdalena Edith, Director, RapaNui Tourism Authority

Anniina Sandberg, Founder / CEO, Visit Natives, Norway