

Clemens Fisch

Driven by the digitisation of travel and the search for compelling and smart solutions for this very phenomenon, Clemens Fisch has spent more than a decade working within Europe's dynamic travel industry, beginning with his years as a tour guide for student groups. Since then, Clemens has gained deep, multi-faceted insight into travel, having worked for two years at leading educational tour operator EF Cultural Tours as an area manager, and five years at travel agency PDM Touristik where he served as a delegation manager and, later, deputy head of sales. More recently, he was a senior account manager at Booking.com.

Today, Clemens is a regional manager for SiteMinder in EMEA, responsible for driving the acquisition of new partners and upselling to existing customers within the country's thriving markets of DACH (Germany, Austria and Switzerland).

He holds a Master's Degree from the Vienna University of Economics and Business, and a CEMS Master's in International Management at HEC.
