

Mateusz Mierzwinski

Mateusz has been an entrepreneur ever since his teenage years, when he founded a business with 19 employees to finance his bachelor degree in Economics and Business Administration in Denmark. After his studies, he worked in Investment Banking, before deciding to return to the classroom to complete an MBA at the University of St. Gallen (HSG). Upon finishing his MBA, he dedicated himself to building and developing LocalBini. His ambitious vision for LocalBini is what led it to become the experiential lifestyle platform it is today. In his free time, Mateusz supports other ambitious minds in achieving their goals.

About LocalBini

LocalBini is present in 74 cities across Europe, enabling leisure and business travellers to book any of the over 1'200 experiences. The platform connects travellers with locals via shared experiences. From a secret boutique shopping Experience with a gemologist to a wine-tasting with an expert sommelier, LocalBini features authentic city experiences that are delivered by remarkable local people. It could be either an architect, a history teacher, a fashion student, or a street-artist. All these people can be found and booked for an experience on LocalBini.
