

Andy Washington

Andy has spent his career contributing to the development of profitable domestic and global businesses, using his tactical and strategic guile as a catalyst to drive fast track scale, efficiencies and share-holder return in a digital world.

Andy has extensive leadership experience acquired with major travel, leisure, technology and retail companies in a local, regional and Global capacity.

Starting his career at the Rank Group, delivering many of the market leading domestic holidays offered today, he progressed his career with experience in Tour Operating, Aviation and On-line retailing with rapid career development at Cosmos, lastminute.com and Expedia/ebookers.com. Andy is now SVP Travel at Culture Trip where he is leading their breakthrough into bookable travel.

Andy is a highly recognised figure in the industry and ranked as one of the 'Captains of the industry' by ABTA.

About Culture Trip

Culture Trip is a travel, media and entertainment start-up, creating stories that reveal what is unique and special about a place, its people and its culture. In-house creative teams work with a global network of around 300 freelance contributors to produce location-based inspiration from around the world, including articles, videos, photography, illustration AND animation.
