

Iaia Pedemonte

Founder of the website <http://www.g-r-t.org> and of the Gender Responsible Tourism (GRT) network. As a UNDP Volunteer she participated in projects in the field; as a reporter she has written articles, reports, and enquiries on responsible tourism.

She qualified with Diplomas in: Humanitarian Operations and Gender Development Empowering Strategies, Post war Reconstruction, Development and International Cooperation, Communication.

She has compiled the ideas of experts, associations and women entrepreneurs, a Map of locations, a blog of news, within GRT website, and in a network of GRT members.

She published a "Guide of free women travellers": more than 50 sustainable destinations suggested and managed by women.

Her aim is to create a worldwide knowledge base of resources, best practices, examples, social media tools, useful to help women and social organizations in increasing gender empowerment and global development.
