

Megan King

Megan King is a forward-looking, communications leader with 25+ years of experience. Megan is leading the team who is engineering, launching and managing CLIA's Global Sustainability Initiative in addition to her role as leader of Public Affairs, Public Relations, Research and Digital/Social Media worldwide.

Prior to starting with CLIA in December 2017, Megan led Porter Novelli's Global, Integrated Creative Group that included creative, digital, social and production to produce award-winning, outcome-driven campaigns for clients in the areas of sustainability, energy, pharmaceuticals and public health. Her brand and reputation management expertise has been sought after by boards, senior leadership teams and by diverse clients (Fortune 500, government, non-profit). She also worked at advertising giant Arnold Worldwide leading the McDonalds DC team. She started in advertising as a copywriter in Albuquerque, NM. Megan lives in Washington, DC with her husband and two daughters.
