

Jaideep Bansal

Jaideep Bansal is the Chief Operating Officer at GHE, a social enterprise that conducts Impact Expeditions to bring Solar Energy to remote Himalayan Villages. He has led multiple impact expeditions with GHE and the team has electrified more than 100 villages to light up the lives of over 40,000 people through an innovative concept of Impact Tourism.

Jaideep has been instrumental in bringing the narrative of Sustainable Development to the wider arena through several articles and as a speaker at Davos, SEforAll and ADB. He has been featured repeatedly at Davos among the top leaders inspiring change in the world. He has also served on the Foundation Board Member of the Global Shapers Community, an Initiative of the World Economic Forum.

GHE's work of remote rural electrification has been documented by National Geographic, BBC and NDTV to reach out to a worldwide audience and has been internationally recognized and awarded by the WTTC and the World Tourism Awards. The UNWTO has recognized GHE as one of the successful case studies in sustainable tourism impacting SDG Goal No 7.
