

Professor Lloyd Waller

Professor Waller is currently the Executive Director of the Global Tourism Resilience and Crisis Management Centre at the University of the West Indies (Mona Campus) as well as the Senior Advisor/Consultant to the Minister of Tourism for Jamaica.

Professor Waller holds a Doctor of Philosophy degree in sociology and social policy from the University of Waikato, New Zealand, with a specialization in information and communication for development and advanced research methods. His thesis, 'ICT for Whose Development: Towards the development of methodologies and analytical tools for understanding and explaining the ICT for Development Phenomenon', attempts to develop advanced methodological tools for studying e-Tourism.

In the last ten years, Professor Waller has published over 100 articles, books, scientific research papers, and technical reports covering areas such as e-government, e-governance, e-Tourism, information and communication technology policy for development, governance and development, as well as innovations in advanced research methods, among others. He has also managed over 200 research projects covering a number of areas, which have had policy implications for Jamaica, the Caribbean, and the World.

Contact data

Professor Lloyd Waller

Executive Director

Global Travel Resilience and Crisis Management Centre

Event

Crisis Management And Resiliency In The Shadow Of COVID-19

Wednesday, March 4, 2020, 16.00 - 16.45

CityCube Berlin, Hall A1

Official Partner Country
ITB Berlin 2020

Co-Host ITB Berlin Convention 2020

EXPERTENWISSEN –
IM ITB TICKET INBEGRIFFEN

Kurzfristige Änderungen vorbehalten.